PARTY FOR 250 HELD ON SHIP

A FEW HOURS before the 13,345-ton passenger cargo liner the City of York left King George Dock, Hull, today to complete her cargo discharge at Newcastle, 250 people went aboard for a party.

They were mostly North of England shippers and importers who had been invited by the Ellerman and Bucknall Steamship Co

Many guests came from the Bradford area and there were also contingents from other parts of Yorkshire and Lincolnshire.

A CABARET

There was a buffet supper, dancing and a cabaret.

Mr S. W. Cooper, director of Ellerman Lines, Ltd., London, Mrs Cooper and Capt. and Mrs A. Westlake received the guests.

Among others present were: Mr E. Brown (director), Mr W. W. Shepherdson, Mr A. Cornell and Mr J. W. B. Fewlass, of Ellerman's Wilson Line, Hull; Mr J. Simpson, Mrs J. Sampson, Mr J. Flynn and Mr P. Taylor, of the London office of Ellerman and Bucknall Lines; and Mr J. Towning, Mr J. Dugdale and Mr J. Bottomley, of branch offices of Ellerman's Wilson Line.
